

LIVELY GRIST FROM UTAH COUNTY

Special Correspondence The Tribune.
PROVO, June 11.—Since my last letter to The Tribune many have been asking for a denial from that organ of the matter of difference of opinion between former Senator Frank J. Can-field and the editor, but it is quietly settled that he has been severely advised to let the matter severely alone or it might create trouble. Much against his wishes and personal pride, he has taken the advice to be taken and the matter dropped, leaving a number of people with the impression that Frank had the best of the argument and that the time has passed and gone when some people can always make noise without being called down.

There is a good story going the rounds at the expense of the Deputy Sheriff. It is said he used to be, until recent letters from Provo have appeared in the special correspondence of The Tribune, a regular and constant Sunday-school teacher, but since the recent letters have appeared in print he is so anxious to see what they say he has not been to his Sunday-school class for several weeks, and in consequence the class has begun an investigation to find out what was the reason. If people would become subscribers to papers publishing the news they would not have to leave a Sunday-school class to come down-town to buy a paper.

It is said that the Democrats have been so uniformly successful in the past in Provo in the matter of nominating bishops for civil positions that his campaign they are going to take on a larger scale. They point with pride to the Loose-Taylor campaign in the Fourth and Bishop Snow from the Fifth in the last election. It seems that he has taken deep root in Democratic soil and they are now going to plant it for all it is worth.

It is whispered that Bishop Taylor, Bishop Snow and Bishop Partridge of Provo, Bishop Levens of Payson, with several other bishops from different parts of the county, are to be the standard-bearers on the Legislative ticket this fall. They are quietly arguing among themselves that if this can be accomplished, with the addition of people to the ticket they will have a winner. The only thing that now seems to be worrying them is the thought that if this is attempted the Republicans have the presidency of the lake, also of the Alpine and Nebo stakes, the president of each being a Republican, and numerous bishops to draw upon, and that if it is carried too far they may be beaten. At the same time, they are just now considering the matter of how far it will be safe to go along these lines.

It is now said that D. D. Houtz will not accept anything but the District Attorneyship and that the fight will be between Mr. Houtz, Mr. Saxey and Mr. Evans with a possibility of D. H.
Thomas entering the race. There are a good many people who do not take to the idea of those who have but recently left the Democratic party coming and taking all the good things in sight.

They say the Democratic City Marshall seems funny to be talking about Democratic officers in a Republican stronghold, does it not?—is about to stage a fast and fierce fight against the drug stores of Provo, and especially against the two drug stores in which several of the best people in Provo, men in the banking business and the gentleman made the statement to the City Council on last Monday evening that it was a hard matter for him to get at the matter, but that here he had too much illicit liquor selling at these places, that officials of the town, men in the banking business and business men of different kinds are controlling them, but he was going to see that it was ended. It seems that a stir among a number of good people in the city. Just why he should have it in for any particular place does not appear, and why a Bourbon Democrat should be all at once so paid about the liquor business is a mystery to some people. It is said the Marshall has something up his sleeve for these people, and there may be some developments in the near future.

It has been quietly rumored for some time that the Democrats intend this fall to nominate most of the county officers from outside of Provo. They say that Provo has had too much in the past and that it will be a stroke of policy to bring most of the candidates from outside. Among the number who may enter the field is Brother Keneth Lynch of American Fork. It is said he was elected City Recorder last year at American Fork and would gladly give up his job and move to Provo if he should be elected to the Clerkship of the County. But there are others who may block the scheme.
It is now asserted that the Democrats have no more houses at the present writing, but that some are now holding Democratic ranks in this county for a long time. It seems funny, but sometimes they begin to think that there is a chance to win something, and it has been until it seems that there will be a bitter fight along the line for the houses plans to be handed out after election. "What fools these mortals are!"

It is reported and generally accepted as a fact among the knowing ones that the trust has again had several meetings of late, and that it has been decided upon by them that the State Treasurership must come to Utah county, and that the trust candidate must be successful. It was resolved, among these present that if the matter was to become so well known it would be unwise to push too many from certain families for State positions; that it would be well to have it definitely understood that some who are now holding those positions would be asked to resign for the good of the cause. It was further pointed out at the meeting that there had been considerable friction at the institution on the hill, and a good deal of dissatisfaction over the management. In fact it has been quietly whispered for some time that a change was about to take place, and that the only reason it did not occur was the fact it was so near the campaigns it was considered best to let things run along as they are until after, because of the trouble it might make. This it has been asserted, was the idea made by the member in charge from this county to the other members who were in control, and it was moved that the point was well taken and the matter stand at present. But it is argued that this will be given out when the proper time comes, for giving the way for the trust candidate for the State Treasurership. It is too early to say, as it will bring trouble sure.

A bunch of knowing ones were standing on the bank corner some few days ago discussing matters political in the county, etc., and a wag was heard to remark that he did not know who "Re-

"was," but he did know that it was the first time he ever knew some of the would-be houses to be called down without even so much as a denial from them. Said he: "That fellow has been guessing this time for a fact." And you can wager your doughnuts that he knows what he is talking about, even if they are mad enough to "chew nails over the matter."

It will be remembered by the readers of The Tribune that some time ago "Republican" referred to the fact that certain members of the trust had it in for our worthy Sheriff, that at the primary held about that time he with others had been slated to stay at home, that a certain clique had packed the primary with the understanding that some people were not to go to the convention because they were supposed to have leanings toward the senior Senator from the State of Utah. It was the talk of the town at the time, and it is now rumored that some of those engaged in the affair have confessed that there was a put-up job by the Organ at the time that this was intended, and also denied that Mart was baiting for the position, and to prove it the Sheriff was all at once boosted as a capable and efficient officer, etc.
But since that time, although denied, it has become an open secret that things have not been what they seemed to be, that because of what had been said and done there was trouble in camp. It is now stated and announced in the press that Deputy Sheriff Buchi, first deputy to the Sheriff, has resigned, much against the will of the Sheriff, who would, if possible, have him stay until the close of the term. It is said that the Sheriff has formed a close attachment for his deputy, and it is also admitted that he has made a good officer. But things were too rank to suit him, it is whispered, hence the resignation. It is also stated that the Sheriff has not yet accepted the same, and will, if possible, have him remain.

In Thursday's issue of the Organ appeared the following: "M. H. Graham will resign as deputy sheriff and leave to take effect July 1." This is another chapter in the matter; but what seems funny to those who are on the inside is, why should they say he will resign on that date? It seems that it might have been put this way, and have read better: "He has resigned." But still it may be the proper way to do it, after all. It may be denied, and probably will be, that there is anything in this at all, that the first deputy simply resigned, and that it was done on account of ill-health, etc., etc. But the fact still remains he is just as well apparently, as he has been for years, and it would take a good deal of persuasion to make people hereabouts think that the matter would ever have come up at all, and that there would have been resignations at all, if it had not been for the put-up job on the Sheriff at the time. It is said that there is weeping and wailing in certain quarters over the affair. Well, this lesson be sufficient to those fellows who are never satisfied to let well enough alone? It seems that it ought to be sufficient, and only verifies what "Republican" has contended for all along, that there are houses who are doing more harm than good, and are playing bad politics.

Sued by His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White of Coahuila, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine.
I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus. It never fails. Sold by all leading druggists.
